WELCOME TO SUTTON UNITED FOOTBALL CLUB

Setting the Scene

Good evening and welcome to tonight’s Enterprise National League game, and to everyone who has travelled up the M3 from Eastleigh for the game.

In particular we welcome Matt Gray and Jason Goodliffe back tonight, the first time they have been here as an opposing management team. Being responsible for our first ever promotion to the Football League, and then a season where we then finished just one place outside the League Two play-offs and were within thirty seconds of a first ever win at Wembley, assures them of a prominent place in our history, and we hope they will receive a welcome this evening that reflects their contribution to the club. We also welcome back Will Randall, a member of that successful squad.

On the pitch we wish them well but preferably after tonight, as we need to put our run of three consecutive scoreless defeats behind us, although it will not be easy, Eastleigh having had a good draw at home to the league leaders on Saturday.

We hope everyone enjoys the game.

CHRIS'S COLUMN

CHRIS AGUTTER
HEAD COACH

A warm welcome back to Gander Green Lane for this evening's National League contest with Eastleigh.

I know there will be a good atmosphere tonight because Matt Gray will be coming back - a warm welcome to him and the rest of the staff and players from Eastleigh. He's obviously a legend, so I'm sure that will generate a bit more noise, which is good, and it's an opportunity for us to put three more points on the board and build on what's been a good start.

We've started well, we've just had a bit of a dip in the last couple of games. The performances, I do actually think have been good and I like a quick turnaround as well. It's another opportunity to put three points on the board. You can do all the training in the world, but we love games. The players have an opportunity to respond as well, so we're looking forward to it.

We've started the season great, we were in the play-off spots and on Saturday we were putting Scunthorpe under pressure. I don't think they got out of their own box for the first ten minutes. We were creating chances, we were putting balls into their six-yard box, we were playing forwards quicker. We're in this together, let's try and get back into the game together.

Obviously, that comes from the players first and foremost. That comes from the level of performance, but I just think in those moments we can help push it into the back of the net with a bit more noise, a bit more energy. It comes first from us, but I think we've done a lot right so far.

TIM ALLISON CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Once again it's a pleasure to welcome supporters and club officials from Eastleigh back to the Borough Sports Ground. Regular visitors consistently as opponents in the modern National League years. Of course we have some well-known returners in the Eastleigh camp tonight with whom we are particularly familiar. A change in dressing room and dugout might give the place a slightly alternative perspective, but we will be reunited with past friends not strangers this evening. Our strong start to the season has faded somewhat but much of Saturday's team and effort had a lot to be liked, even if the result wasn't what was hoped for. Whilst writing my notes for Scunthorpe I was aware of three new faces, but prohibited from mentioning them in case they didn't "land" in time. It was good to see two debuts from prodigiously talented players – including an ex-winner of this difficult league. Plus another new arrival on the bench.

It certainly felt as though we broke the lines and spent more time in the opposition penalty box than in earlier games. Unfortunately no goal to show for it. The contrast in “luck” with the deflected shot that left Chris Haigh with nowhere to go on Tuesday against Birmingham, and the superb reflex save his Scunthorpe counterpart pulled off reflected the fine margins at this level of football.

Sadly it seems some of our supporters have decided that the larger number of wins this season are already being overshadowed by the fewer number of losses and offered up some frustration, or worse, on Saturday. Whilst I understand the emotions a game can bring, I would like to think the majority of our supporters will get behind our team regardless. After all, the clue is in the “supporter” name. Let us maximise, and with a greater frequency and voice, those actions over others choosing not to at present please.

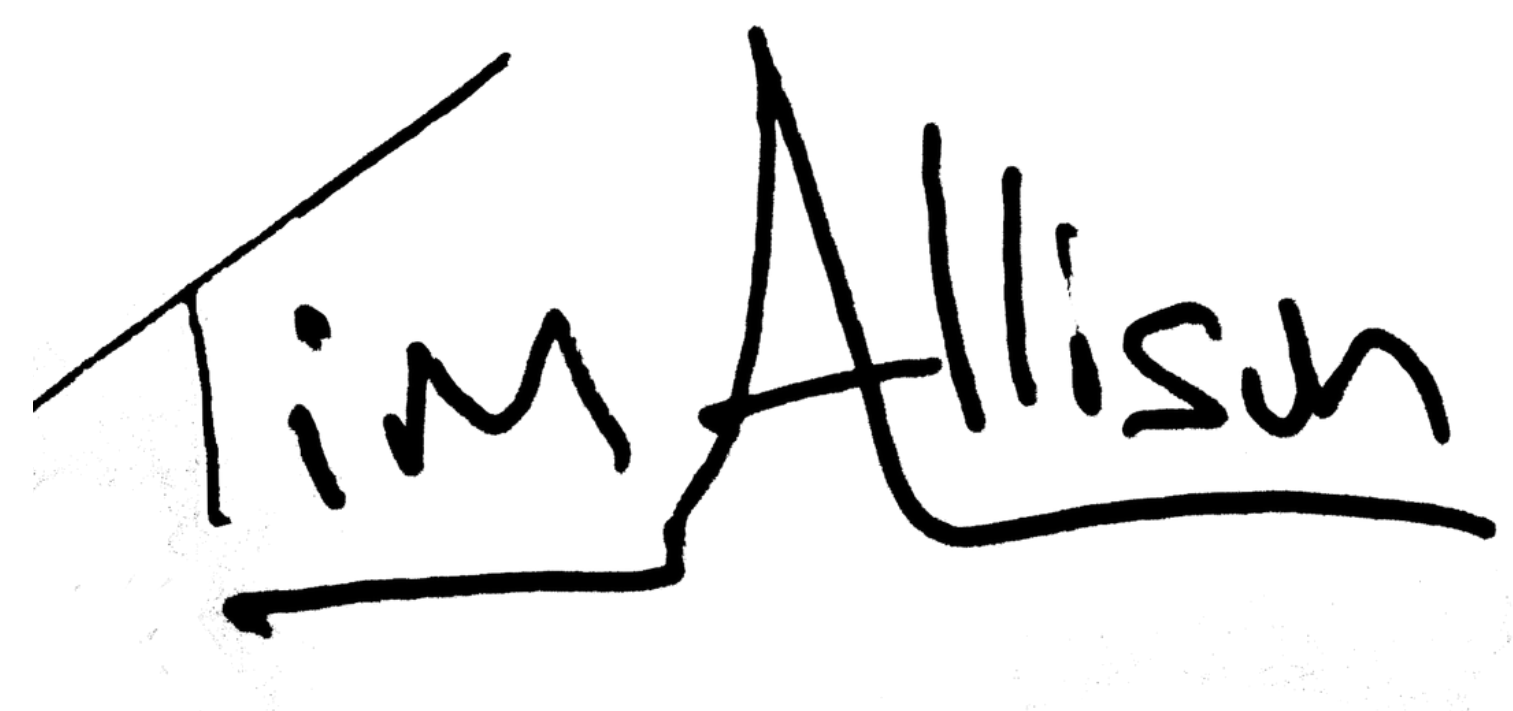

Of greater hope is that the work on the training pitch, and the luck in games, turns to more favourable results too such that supportive behaviour is restored across the fanbase.

Can I take an opportunity to thank supporters for their continued understanding regarding Gate C, with the area adjacent taking longer than expected to be restored to a public safe space. Whilst we can manage the “trickle” of arrivals spread over the hour before kick-off, it remains difficult to safely manage the “wave” looking to leave through an area that is uneven and funnels to the ground’s exit in that area. I am hoping we will soon not only restore the full utility of the gate but also the area in which the Club’s Foundation undertake fun activities, particularly for children, on matchdays. I can assure you my frustration matches yours.

Our Women’s Team tasted their first defeat of the season by the odd goal in three at Bromley on Sunday. Promotion is just as tough from that league for our women as it is in the National League. A chance for revenge is swift, though, as we return in the FA Cup this Sunday, and enthusiasts for knock-out football will be relishing the prospect of a run in the Women’s FA Cup for the second season.

MEET THE MANAGER

Matt Gray took over at Eastleigh in the summer, having previously had a spell at the club as assistant manager between 2007 and 2011.

His first managerial post was at Sutton, who he joined in 2019 and in his second season he guided the club to the National League championship and in to the Football League for the first time.

In the first season at that level Sutton finished just one point outside the League Two play-off positions and reached the EFL Trophy final, being within seconds of a first ever win at Wembley before ultimately losing to League One champions Rotherham in extra time.

After leaving Sutton in December 2023 he had a brief spell as manager of Eastbourne Borough last season.

As a player he began his career with Tottenham and played for Cardiff, Hayes and Havant & Waterlooville before being forced to retire early through injury, and as well as Eastleigh he has also been assistant manager at Aldershot and Crawley.

THE KEY

6 Temi Eweka Defender

Temi Eweka has had quite the footballing fairytale, as the defender has climbed his way up through the lower levels of English football to get to his current level, playing for 13 clubs in his career so far despite only being 27.

He began his career in the Dartford academy before breaking out at Bracknell Town, where he played a key role in their 2021-22 Isthmian South Central championship success.

He went on to play for Maidenhead, Gloucester, Dulwich, Slough and Maidstone, then signed for Eastleigh in summer 2025.

Going into his second season with the Spitfires he's proved to be a brilliant defender at this level, and scored the equaliser for Eastleigh against Boreham Wood on Saturday.

4 Harry Sidwell Midfielder

Harry Sidwell is the son of former England youth midfielder Steve Sidwell, and he's followed in his dad's footsteps by becoming a midfielder himself.

Harry is a product of the AFC Wimbledon academy, who he joined at the age of 14 and where he has remained since, making one senior appearance for the Dons.

He has primarily gained senior experience out on loan with spells at Havant & Waterlooville, Enfield Town, Dagenham & Redbridge and Dorking Wanderers.

The midfielder signed a new deal with Wimbledon in the summer and immediately joined Eastleigh on a season-long loan, where he has enjoyed an impressive start, scoring twice and picking up an assist in his first six games despite playing as a deeper midfielder.

A physical player, Sidwell also possesses great technical ability as well as an eye for goal, and he has found the net twice in the National League already this season.

11 Aaron Blair Forward

Aaron Blair is a tricky striker always looking to use his pace and dribbling ability to cause trouble for defenders.

Blair has spent a lot of his career at Dagenham and Redbridge but did not get much opportunity, being sent out on various loans. Among those loans he had three separate spells with Braintree Town, before he eventually made the move a permanent one in 2023.

In two seasons he scored 31 goals in 91 games and was a key member of the National League South promotion-winning side in 2023-24, scoring in the play-off semi final and final. the 2022-23 season.

In 2024 he joined Maidstone United, helping the club reach the play-off final with 19 goals and nine assists in 46 games, before earning a move to the National League when he signed for Eastleigh in 2025. Blair had a very successful campaign last season, scoring 17 times and getting three assists. He has also scored twice so far in the league this season, and remains a hard striker to pin down.

HISTORIC RAMBLINGS

Written by Mark Frake.

For this season I will be reviewing a month that today's fixture falls in from a given year .

1974

Ted Powell's first full season in charge, celebrating his year in post on the 4th of the month. During the summer he had made a number of headline captures including Alan Ives (right) from Tooting & Mitcham United, Micky Preston (Kingstonian), an England amateur centre-back, and experienced goalkeeper John Overton. However, the biggest news was the return of Larry Pritchard from Wycombe Wanderers.

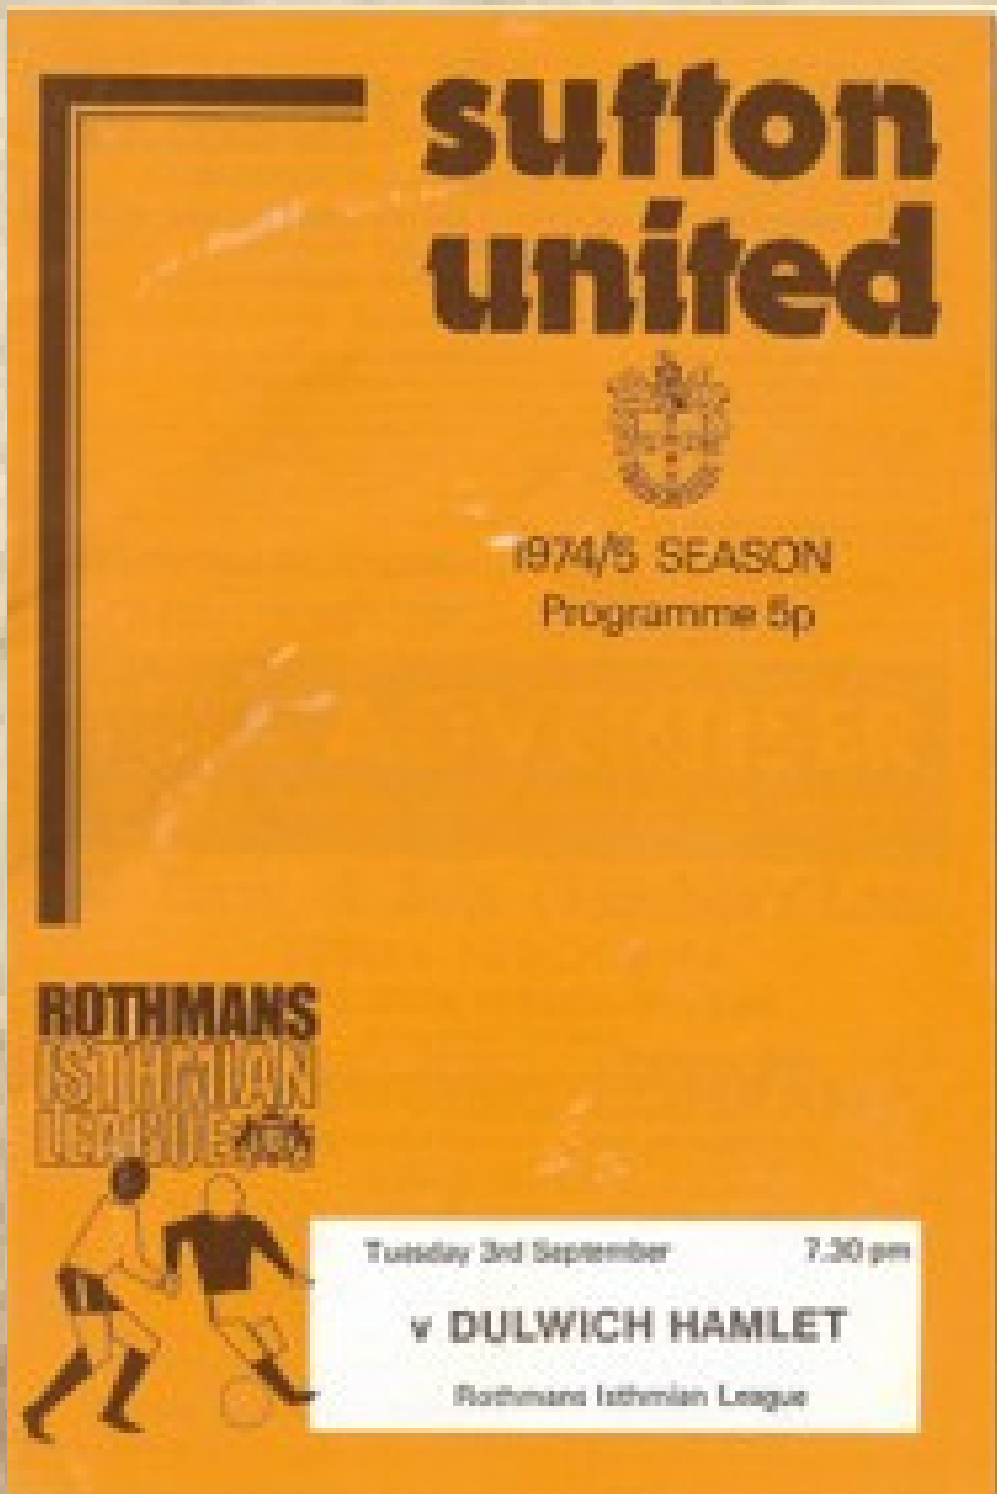

The summer had seen the abolition of amateur status in England and the end, sadly, of the Amateur Cup. Therefore, this was SUFC's first season as a semi-professional club.

For Sutton, off the pitch, press secretary Simon Clennell had upgraded the official programme, a glossy small size publication replacing the old, tired, eight page advertisement dominated old paper issue that had been in place since the early 1950s.

Five Isthmian League matches in August had brought three wins and a draw; the ten points would have left U's in the higher echelons of the league (table not up to date in the programme).

Featured Match 3rd September v Dulwich Hamlet at GGL

Hamlet arrived at GGL for this midweek Isthmian League fixture in decent early season form, three wins and two defeats. Their team included four former Sutton players namely goalkeeper Alan Thomas, defender Ken Grose, and attacking players Ken Jelly and SUFC legend Trevor Bladon. U's went into this match on the back of a 4-0 win at Oxford City, while Dulwich had lost their previous game. Bladon was prominent in the first half as Hamlet enjoyed the lion's share of of the attacking play. Barker, Jelly and Pudney all missed presentable chances. They were made to rue this profligacy when, in the 44th minute, a Graham Dennis hooked cross was headed off the goal line by Grose only for U's right back Micky Fountain to head in off the turf for his first Sutton goal.

That goal changed the running of the play as U's enjoyed much of the forward intentions in the second half, giving Hamlet no opportunities to find their earlier rhythm. That superior play resulted in a second goal in the 82nd minute when Pritchard collected a poor Thomas clearance to advance and fire in.

This would prove cult hero Don Butterfill's last appearance for Sutton with the return of Ives from a two week holiday limiting his opportunities and he was soon at Bromley. U's: Overton, Fountain, Roots, Powell, Preston, McDonald, Butterfill, Pritchard, Coppin, Dennis, Kidd

Four days later, Ives' return did little to boost U's though as they lost at Hayes by 2-0 in a disappointing performance. This gave the hosts their first win of the season and provided a fine example of the inconsistency that Sutton demonstrated under Powell.

A week later and Dulwich were back at GGL this time in the FA Cup 1st qualifying round. Dennis and Ricky Kidd both scored twice in a fine and exciting 4-2 victory; U's had come from a goal behind to move into a 4-1 advantage. Seven days on and U's made what was then a longish trip to Bishops Stortford. The George Wilson Stadium had not been a great venue for United with just one point from three previous visits. And that record would not improve as U's fell to a 3-0 reverse; this would be Sutton's heaviest defeat of the season. Terry Brown made his Sutton debut up front in place of Tony Coppin.

Three days later and Sutton wiped out that three goal deficit as they gained revenge for an early season defeat at Ilford (0-2) with a fine 3-0 victory, Ives scoring twice. A fine performance against an Ilford side who had lost just once (at Enfield) and sat in third place before kick-off.

September 1974 ended in the London Senior Cup, a very early start for the competition. U's hosts were Spartan League leaders Harefield United. Sutton had experienced some shock defeats in the LSC over the years and a poor surface coupled with a spirited home side meant for a difficult afternoon not helped by some poor finishing. Eventually U's scraped through by 2-1 (Coppin and Dennis).

U's finished September through to the second stage of two cup competitions and in a top eight league position.

September record (league only) P4 W2 D 0 L 2 F 5 A5

Ricky Kidd and Graham Dennis (right) topped the scoring charts with the goals scored against Dulwich in the FA Cup.

The FA Cup run would end at in the 4th qualifying round, the first match to be played at Wexham Park while the LSC exit would come in the fourth round at home to Enfield. They would go on to win their first IL title since 1970 with U's dropping off to a disappointing mid table finish.

SUFC v Eastleigh

While Eastleigh's first visit to GGL was in the FA Cup in 2001, the two clubs have met regularly in league football since 2005/06 season. They did the double over U's that season winning by 3-0 here, a victory that remains their only success at Sutton in league football. That was in the Conference South.

In the NL, tonight is their seventh visit and they have just picked up one point in their previous six visits, a 1-1 draw in January 2017. Four years later, Sutton recorded their best score line against Eastleigh at Sutton, 3-0 (see next page). U's record at The Silverlake is similar to that of Eastleigh's here. Last season's 2-0 success was only U's second there, the first a 2-1 in September 2007 in the Conference South, ironically Sutton's worst season in just over eighty years. As well as winning at the Silverlake last season, U's won the home match by 2-1 on Bonfire Night thus recording their first double over Eastleigh.

U's record at GGL (league only) W7 D4 L1 F17 A9

Ross Montague(who scored both in that 2007 win), Craig Dundas and Jamie Collins hold the joint top scorer record for Sutton versus Eastleigh with two each.

There is a long list of players to have appeared for both clubs influenced by Paul Doswell, particularly in his early seasons at GGL. They include 'keeper Gareth Howells; defenders Karim El-Salahi, Chris Collins, Dean Beckwith and Dan Spence and midfielders David Hughes (he also managed Eastleigh) Gavin Heeroo and Chris Piper. Wide men included the talented Matt Hann and Tony Taggart while up front Matt Tubbs will be remembered for a brief but important role during the 2016/17 season including an equaliser against Cheltenham in the FA Cup 2nd round and a goal in that 1-1 draw against Eastleigh, Steve Watts and Andy Forbes. Finally, Jamie Collins partnered Dean Beckwith for both clubs in the middle of the back four; Dos always called JC his best signing and he delivered with that spot kick in January 2017 against Leeds United to set up that special evening with Arsenal.

Of course, the managerial connection does not stop with the likes of Dos with Ian Baird and as mentioned above, David Hughes. But this evening we welcome back Matt Gray and Jason Goodliffe to GGL and what they achieved here has never been bettered (promotion to the EFL as NL champions). One of their pre-season signings was Will Randall, so welcome back to Will too., while captain Jake Taylor also skippered the Spitfires.

A BLAST FROM THE PAST

We pick a notable clash with Eastleigh from the U's 128-year history.

3-0

Saturday, 26th January 2021 | Borough Sports Ground

Today we go back to the season of empty grounds, but a season that would end with Sutton winning promotion to the EFL. This was an even game for the first half hour or so with David Ajiboye having an early shot blocked by a defender in the six yard box, and Dean Bouzanis having to change direction to hold a deflected cross from Sam Smart. Then Eastleigh's Cav Miley was sent off for a heavy challenge on Craig Eastmond right on the edge of the penalty area, and Rob Milsom sent the resulting free kick in to the net to give Sutton the lead.

If Milsom's free kicks were a feature of the season so was the individual brilliance of David Ajiboye, and eleven minutes later he collected a quick free kick from Isaac Olaofe on the halfway line and slalomed through the Eastleigh defence before sliding the ball past Joe McDonnell (below). However he was beaten in the goal of the game contest by Eastmond midway through the second half when McDonnell came out to clear a long Jon Barden pass, and Eastmond returned the ball from all of forty yards first time in to the vacant net. Ajiboye and Ben Goodliffe both went close to a fourth, while just before the end Joe Tomlinson tried to outdo Eastmond with a shot from the halfway line that was clawed away from under the bar by a back-peddalling Bouzanis.

ACADEMY

A round-up of the latest academy news as the Academy South Division programme begins with a draw.

Wednesday 9 September, National League Academy South BOREHAM WOOD 1 SUTTON UNITED 3

Winston Iworh scored twice as we picked up a first win of the season in National League Academy South last Wednesday.

After we had twice gone close following long throws, Iworh opened the scoring in the 8th minute when he poked the ball over the line from close range, and he soon had his second as he sent in a shot from the left edge of the penalty area that went in off the far post.

Tae Bamidele had a shot saved after intercepting a poor clearance from the home goalkeeper, and Iworh nearly had a first half hat trick as he chased a long ball but lifted his shot just over, but Boreham Wood did pull one back in first half stoppage time with a shot that went under Lewis Bullen.

Just before the hour we restored our two goal advantage when Bamidele was fouled and Blake San Norton converted the penalty, and although the home side came close to reducing the arrears on several occasions, Bullen making one excellent double save, we might have scored at the end when Stiven Muca rattled the crossbar following a corner.

Team: Bullen, San Norton, Humphries, Buburuzan, Muwana(Oguli 45+1), Boateng, Bamidele, Pledge(Severini 64), Iworh(Ojugo 60), Schipper(Gangor 60), Grimes(Muca 77).

There is no Academy South game this week, but next Wednesday we are at home to Forest Green Rovers, kick off 2pm at Tooting & Mitcham's Imperial Fields ground.

Our Division F side began their campaign last Wednesday with a 3-1 win at home to Dartford. Harley Francis scored twice and there was also a goal for Areshai Dillon.

Next Wednesday it is their turn to visit Boreham Wood, playing Boreham Wood Blues at Meadow Park, kick off 2pm.

In the Isthmian Youth League we went down 2-0 at Camberley last week, and don't have another league game until early October when we visit Ascot. However we will be looking to continue our progress in the Isthmian Youth Cup next Monday away to East Grinstead Town, kick off 7.30pm.

SUFC WOMEN

A round-up of the latest news from the Women's section.

Sunday 13 September
BROMLEY 2 SUTTON UNITED 1

Our unbeaten record in the London & South East Regional League ended at Bromley on Sunday, the home side extending their own run to five games unbeaten following their promotion last season.

Bromley had scored fifteen goals in their previous two games and began confidently, although struggling to create chances until Charlotte Crook cleared off the line from Jacey Lane.

The game took a decisive turn in Bromley's favour just before half time when a header from Charlotte Lee hit the bar and bounced down, some confusion following before the referee and his assistant finally ruled it had crossed the line. With U's rocked by the goal, Bromley soon doubled their lead with a long range effort from Beth Hull in to the top corner.

We replied in the opening minute of the second half as Brianna Gilbert- Lawal intercepted a poor pass to put Georgia Heasman through to score, but despite several attacking substitutions and some late pressure we were unable to find the equaliser and Bromley defended well to hold on to their narrow lead.

We return to Bromley on Sunday in the second qualifying round of the Adobe Women's FA Cup, kick off 2pm. This game is likely to be on one of the outside 3G pitches rather than the stadium pitch.

Before that we visit Cray Wanderers tomorrow in the in the first round of the Isthmian Women's Cup, kick off 7.45pm at Flamingo Park.

TWO OUT OF TWO FOR UNDER 23s

Our Under 23s made it two wins out of two on Sunday, with three second half goals earning a 3-0 win against Jersey Bulls. Rachel Marlow followed up her hat trick against Walton by giving us the lead three minutes in to the second half, and Neriya Anderson-Bailey doubled the lead just after the hour mark. The scoring was rounded off by substitute Maya Anderson with fifteen minutes left, Hanna Hevesy claiming a second assist of the afternoon.

Sutton: Soltani, Skazlic, Anderson-Bailey, Dunne, Davies, Hevesy, Cook, Durrant, Marlow, Quaintance, Okandju.
Subs Anderson, Jamieson, Parker

The Under 23s will look to maintain their 100% record on Sunday away to Manorcroft United, who have won their only game so far at home to Croydon. The game is a 2pm kick off at Strodes College, Egham.

FOUNDATION

THE POWER OF CONNECTION.

As we mark World Suicide Prevention Day on 10th September, it is important to remember that mental health is something we all have a role in supporting.

The theme for this year's World Suicide Prevention Day is "Changing the Narrative on Suicide" – encouraging more open conversations, greater understanding and stronger connections within our communities.

At Sutton United Foundation, we believe football can play a powerful role in that. Football is about far more than what happens for 90 minutes on a pitch. It can provide a reason to leave the house, an opportunity to meet people, a routine and, perhaps most importantly, a place where friendships can develop.

There is something incredibly powerful about being part of a team. Having people around you, sharing experiences, encouraging one another and knowing that someone will notice when you are there – and perhaps notice when you're not – can make a real difference. Being physically active can also support our mental wellbeing. The NHS recognises that physical activity can improve mood, reduce stress and anxiety, boost self-esteem and improve social interaction. But you don't have to be the best footballer, the fittest person or even particularly confident to benefit. Sometimes it is simply about getting through the door. A kickabout with friends. A walk with someone you know. Joining a new session. Having a conversation while you're waiting for training to start. Laughing with teammates and celebrating a goal together. These moments might seem small, but they can help people feel connected and remind us that we don't have to face difficult moments alone.

That is why, across the Foundation, we want to create opportunities for people of all ages and abilities to be active, meet others and feel part of our community. Football gives us the platform, but people are at the heart of what we do.

This World Suicide Prevention Day, let's continue to change the narrative. Let's make time for one another, check in with the people around us, start conversations and create communities where people feel welcomed, valued and connected. Because sometimes, the most important part of football isn't the football at all. It's the people you meet along the way.

If you or someone you know is struggling with their mental health, please don't feel that you have to deal with it alone. Talking to someone can be an important first step. Samaritans – Free, confidential support for anyone who needs someone to talk to. Call 116 123 – available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Childline – Free support for anyone under 19.
Call 0800 1111 – available 24 hours a day.
SHOUT – Free, confidential text support available 24/7 in the UK. Text SHOUT to 85258.

If you need urgent mental health support, you can contact NHS 111 and select the mental health option. Sometimes the first step is simply talking.

Rest in peace, Tom

Tom sadly passed away recently and I am sure many fans in the main stand in particular will remember him as a very passionate and faithful Sutton United fan. He had been a regular attendee for at least 15 years and always had a yellow 'Garfield' cushion.

Affectionately sometimes known as 'Tom the Turk' he usually sat near David and Steve.

AROUND THE GROUNDS

Louis Massingham-Rowell rounds up the latest in the Enterprise National League.

It was an incredibly entertaining weekend in the National League, with 43 goals across the twelve games.

The late kick-off on Saturday saw the two of the division's heavyweights go head to head, producing a thrilling 2-2 draw. Georgie Kelly's strike in the fourth minute opened the scoring for Carlisle, and with numerous chances throughout the game they should have extended their lead. Southend came from behind once again, and a wonderful strike by Kyle McAdam in the 93rd minute put them ahead after Leon Chambers-Parillon had equalised ten minutes earlier. Despite the setback, Kelly levelled late on for the Cumbrians to secure a point for Rob Elliot's side.

This evening's opponents, Eastleigh, held league leaders Boreham Wood to a 1-1 draw. Charlie O'Connell scored his first goal since 3rd March to give The Wood the lead. They failed to make it eight wins on the bounce in all competitions as Temi Eweka's eighty-fifth-minute goal secured Matt Gray's side a vital point. Luke Garrard's side's lead at the top of the table was cut to one point after Harrogate's 3-1 win at home to Tamworth. Goals from Bailey Hobson, Will McGowan and Josh Hmami secured a third win on the trot.

Four teams sit two points off second-place Harrogate, with two of the National League North's promoted sides closely behind. AFC Fylde sit third and secured a statement away at Yeovil. Braces from Greg Olley and Luca Thomas saw the Coasters leave Somerset with a 4-1 victory. It is three wins from their previous four games, with an improved defensive record of four goals conceded during this time. Thomas's brace takes his total to five goals in three games and left Yeovil with back-to-back defeats after a promising August.

Hot on Fylde's heels are Kidderminster, who kicked off the week's action with a 2-0 victory over Hartlepool on Friday night. It was a game to forget for Hartlepool's Neo Ecclestone who, after scoring an own goal in the first half, was sent off for the second time this season two minutes into the second. One-way traffic followed, and the Carpetmen doubled their lead five minutes from time through Callum Stewart's header. Pools have lost five of their last six matches in all competitions and are the league's lowest scorers alongside Gateshead with five goals so far this season.

Another of the division's surprise packages won at the weekend as Aldershot came away from Solihull Moors with a 2-1 win. Moors striker Ben Wodskou atoned for his missed penalty early in the contest by scoring the opening goal just before half-time. Chris Millington's side later succumbed, conceding their 18th and 19th goals of the season to go home empty-handed. A 93rd minute winner from Jordan Alves ensured Aldershot remained unbeaten on the road, taking eight points from four away games..

Forest Green made it back-to-back wins and clean sheets after a 4-0 drubbing of Gateshead. Kyle McAllister's third of the season opened the scoring before second-half goals from Ricardo Rees, Jayden Clarke and Ollie Ewing wrapped up the three points for Rovers. With Kidderminster and Southend to face this week, it is tough to see where Gateshead will pick up a win soon. Forest Green's win lifted them into the play-off places at the expense of Sutton and Hornchurch.

The latter suffered their second consecutive defeat without scoring on Saturday, losing 3-0 at Halifax. The victory for the Shaymen was their fifth on the bounce at home in all competitions and continued their binary run of results in the league of: loss, win, loss, win, loss, win. They will hope to break this run as they travel to Wealdstone tonight.

The Stones are full of confidence heading into the game after their 3-1 win at Boston. Top scorer Micah Obiero's departure to Carlisle earlier in the week had no impact on the West London side as they came from behind to secure back-to-back victories on the road. Jamie Grimes scored his second goal in as many games for the Pilgrims, but Dylan Kadji cancelled this out just before the break. Two goals in a minute from Olufela Olomola and Jaydn Mundle-Smith were enough for Gary Waddock's side.

In true National League fashion, Altrincham followed up three wins on the bounce with a 5-1 defeat at Woking, who themselves were without a win in three games. John Marquis scored a brace on his home debut and lifted The Cardinals out of the bottom four at the expense of Barrow.

The Bluebirds were on their way to victory themselves when a Mikey Lane brace had put them 2-0 up at half-time at Worthing . However, Barrow's defensive fragilities came back to bite them as Dom Hutchinson scored twice, both assisted by new signing and former Sutton player Charley Kendall to secure a comeback point for the Rebels. A point doesn't do either side any favours and leaves Worthing with one win in their last six games ahead of their fixture against fellow National League South promoted side Hornchurch tonight.

MATCH ACTION

A goal in each half consigned us to a third consecutive National League defeat without scoring and gave Scunthorpe their first away league win of the season.

We had the better of the early exchanges but opportunities were restricted to several long throws from Dan Urpens, one of which saw Will Nightingale's header saved by Maison Campbell.

Scunthorpe went in front six minutes before half time when Kyle Hurst's cross from a short corner was punched out by Spike Brits, but when Joe Starbuck's shot was diverted back to Hurst he connected cleanly with a volley from just outside the penalty area which flew past Brits.

Brandon Njoku was put through by Joe Wright only to be denied by the oncoming Campbell (above) and Scunthorpe secured the points when Tyrell Sellars-Fleming despatched a first time shot after Tyler Denton's cross bounced to him off Danny Whitehall.
