Emirates FA CUP

vs TRURO CITY
Saturday 17th October | 3.00pm KO

WELCOME TO SUTTON UNITED FOOTBALL CLUB

Setting the Scene

Good afternoon and welcome to this afternoon's Emirates FA Cup tie. In particular a welcome to everyone who has made the long trip from Cornwall - with Truro's excellent record on this ground it has normally been a trip worth making, as to be fair has the trip in the opposite direction for us, but the one cup meeting here did go our way so we must hope that is the record that is maintained.

It will be far from easy, though, against a side that has made a good start to their quest to regain the National League place they lost last season, when their 3-0 win here was as much a highspot of the season for them as it was a low point for us.

Should the game be drawn after ninety minutes, this is the last stage of the competition with replays so we will be reconvening at Truro on Tuesday night.

Our National League Cup interest remains after Tuesday's entertaining win against West Brom, and it looks to be between us, Woking and their final opponents Birmingham for the second place behind our visitors today, who are pretty much certain to progress, with West Brom still just about in the mix.

Enjoy today's game.

CHRIS'S COLUMN

CHRIS AGUTTER

HEAD COACH

A warm welcome to all of today's attendees for this afternoons FA Cup encounter. A tough test but one that myself, the staff, and all the players relish against familiar foes Truro City FC.

Midweek against West Brom we saw real progress in terms of our overall level of performance, more crosses, more shots, more risk, more aggressive, more forward thinking.....more us! Couple that performance with another win makes it a great night all round. We're improving and just in time for the all important winter months!

We continue to work incredibly hard on the training pitch in pursuit of that utopia of attacking output and defensive solidity.....whilst being an entertaining watch along the way.

What will also no doubt help on this front is getting a settled, consistent team out there.....we got to see Jordy and Nighty together for a game and a half, Carts is now back, Kirky isn't far off.....Nighty is now injured again and the frustrating injury cycle continues. We will find a way!

We hope today is another start of an adventurous FA Cup run, we hope today that we can put another home win on the board.....and we hope today we can make the Amber Army proud once more.

TIM ALLISON
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Once again it's a pleasure to welcome supporters and club officials from Truro City back to the 360 Engage Stadium – its name having changed since their previous visit last season.

There is something about cup football, and its knockout nature, that I find so compelling. My first visit to watch my club was in a cup game and they are still my favourites, as anyone who knows me and my feelings about the Surrey Senior Cup can attest. Earlier this week we had around 250 local schoolchildren (with a parent or two) enjoying a win in the National League Cup. It really was great to be able to hear so much joy and excitement.

This competition has a longer and deeper history, so I am expecting we won't need to rely on people coming for the first time to create our crowd today.

Truro gave us a scare at theirs last season when what was looking to be a comfortable victory became much more nervous than it should have been. The return game was both brilliant and awful. Our first “Pack The Lane” fixture, with tickets for everyone at the £2 child entry price, ensured we had nearly 4,000 at the stadium. Unfortunately eleven of those present forgot what their roles were. Despite that win our visitors spent most of the season in the bottom four and it wasn’t a surprise when their one season at this level ended with relegation back to the National League South.

Back at the level that brought them success in 2024-25 they are once more winning games and looking likely to be a threatening opponent. It may just be that a relatively unchanged squad is demonstrating the gulf between tiers one and two in the non-league pyramid, although plenty of counter-examples exist of clubs coming up and doing well, including this season’s table toppers Boreham Wood.

Midweek, as alluded to above, saw another accomplished performance, with twenty or so shots, and three goals scored. Both numbers higher than against Tamworth, Kidderminster and Boreham Wood combined it might be argued.

Whilst we would take a late goal to win by a slender margin we have the potential to put a proper winning performance together. We have seen many here before. But sometimes it’s the tight wins in cups that lead to better things. Some of our best cup runs have followed from matches where it felt as though scraping through to keep the name in the hat was enough. Those are the tense and nervous, less enjoyable, games you remember as a supporter because of how much it matters and what follows.

Ten years ago our first game was a nine-goal thriller away at Dartford that led to our history making visit by Arsenal. What followed was a late winner against Cheltenham, in the sixth minute of stoppage time, after we had been behind at half time. Six brilliant games in that cup run, but ahead of playing Cheltenham our form was just one win from eight in the league. Nobody remembers that. Few refer to the importance of that Cheltenham game in the context not just of that season, but the club’s history.

Love the cup – but secretly I, and my nerves, would value a nine goal thriller in front of a couple of thousand supporters. I just hope I don’t have to go through a nail biter.

Up the U’s.

Founded: 1889
Nickname: The Tinners
Manager: John Askey
Top Scorer: Tyler Harvey (5)

Pos:	Form:	Points:

John Askey is in his third season as manager, leading them to promotion in his first season.

As a player he is mainly associated with Macclesfield Town, making over 500 appearances and scoring over 100 goals for them over a twenty year period after beginning his career with Port Vale.

He then had two spells as manager of the Silkmen and in 2018 guided them to the National League championship and promotion to the Football League.

He subsequently managed Shrewsbury, Port Vale, York City, with whom he won promotion from National League North, and Hartlepool before taking over at Truro in 2024.

MEET THE MANAGER

THE KEY

Will Dean
Midfielder

Will Dean is a versatile defensive midfielder or centre back.

He's known for his hard-working mentality alongside his brilliant physical profile and will be a hard player to by-pass.

Dean started his career at Exeter City and spent time on loan at Truro, being voted Player of the Year in the truncated 2019-29 season, and Bath City before signing for Truro permanently in 2021.

Now in his sixth season at the club, he has become popular with the supporters and was a regular presence in the National League South championship side two seasons ago, memorably playing the decisive game against St Albans wearing a headband after suffering an injury in the previous game at Weston-super-Mare.

Tyler Harvey
Forward

Tyler Harvey is an experienced forward who has a keen eye for goal. He started his career at Plymouth Argyle and played 50 times for The Pilgrims scoring five goals, most of his appearances coming off the bench.

After a spell with Wrexham he signed for Truro in 2017 and was a regular scorer over the next two seasons before joining Bath City, however within two months he was back at Truro to continue a career which has seen him make over 170 appearances in which he's found the back of the net an astonishing 107 times.

In the 2024/25 season his 27 goals led Truro to promotion and he was therefore named the National League South player of the season as well as winning the section's Golden Boot.

He's also the club's vice captain.

15

Luke Jephcott

Forward

Luke Jephcott is another former Plymouth player to play for Truro, as he came through the academy at Home Park, making his debut as a teenager in the 2018-19 season

He had a loan spell at Truro the following season, impressing with eight goals in eighteen games before returning to Plymouth and playing over 100 games for The Greens, twice hitting double figures in a season and being capped by Wales at Under 21 level.

After a loan spell with Swindon Jephcott left Plymouth and moved to St Johnstone and then Newport County where he was again sent on loan to Truro and helped The Tinners get promotion in the 2024/25 season.

After that it was destiny as in 2025 he finally joined Truro permanently. A classy striker, Jephcott has more than goals to his game with great one-v-one ability and a good eye for a pass, and he'll be someone we'll need to stop this Saturday.

A BLAST FROM THE PAST

We look back at the only previous cup meeting between Sutton and Truro

Saturday 16th December 2017 | Borough Sports Ground
FA Trophy 1st Round | Att 576

As Mark says in the following pages, Truro have had the better of the exchanges in league competition at Sutton, but the only cup meeting here between the sides nine years ago went in our favour, but only just, as substitute Craig Dundas scored the only goal of the game with just over a minute of normal time to go.

We went in to the game second in the National League, two points behind leaders Macclesfield (managed by John Askey), while Truro were seventh in National League South, but there was little between the sides as Ross Stearn had an early shot deflected wide for Sutton and Tommy Wright shot wide when well placed, while at the other end Jamie Butler saved well from Ed Palmer.

The closest to a goal came when Palmer rattled the crossbar for Truro from a free kick, but in increasingly heavy rain Dundas, who earlier had shot over a gaping goal from Wright's cross, this time made no mistake as a defensive slip allowed him to run through and shoot past the advancing Tom McHale and save everyone from Sutton a midweek trip to Truro in the week before Christmas, although Cody Cooke's late shot did go very close to earning Truro a replay.

Sutton: Butler, Spence, Bailey, Walton, John, Collins, Bolarinwa(Cadogan 79), Eastmond, Lafayette(Taylor 79), Wright, Stearn (Dundas 62). Subs n/u Downer, Brown.
Truro: McHale, Thompson(Palfrey 79), Hartridge, Palmer, Gerring, Richards, Lamont(Keats 79), Riley-Lowe, Harvey(Neale 79), Cooke, Harding. Subs n/u Yetton, Copp

HISTORIC RAMBLINGS

Written by Mark Frake.

For this season I will be reviewing a month that today's fixture falls in from a given year .

1967

As reigning Isthmian League champions, U's had started their defence reasonably well, winning six and drawing two of their first nine matches, the only defeat coming at Oxford City. United's most recent league win was at Maidstone United by 9-0 the club's record away win (since equalled at Gateshead in September 1990). Progress to the FA Cup 3rd qualifying round had also been made.

October commenced with the traditional Champions v League XI match on the 3rd. This ended 1-1 with Peter Smith scoring his only senior goal for Sutton (he only made one other appearance). Four days later and a trip to Lynn Road to meet struggling Ilford in the Isthmian. The hosts had recorded just one win in ten matches (nine defeats) and sat only above Maidstone at the bottom. U's led 2-0 (Terry Howard and Micky Mellows) but two Reid goals in less than a minute earned Ilford a shock point.

The midweek visit of Woking to GGL gave Sutton a chance to bounce back from the disappointment of a point at Ilford and they duly hammered their Surrey rivals by 5-0, four of the goals coming in a rampant first half performance. Dave Hutchins (right) registered a hat-trick in that first period while Larry Pritchard and Howard were also on target.

The following Saturday U's travelled to Broadhall Way to face Stevenage Town in the FA Cup 3rd qualifying round. While the venue was the same, Town would fold a few seasons later and they have no connection to the current club who play in a much developed BW now. Having already thrashed Southern League Premier Hillingdon Borough by 5-1 in the previous round, U's took another SLP scalp with a superb 3-2 success over their semi-pro hosts. Mellows, Trevor Bladon and Howard with the winning goal, scored.

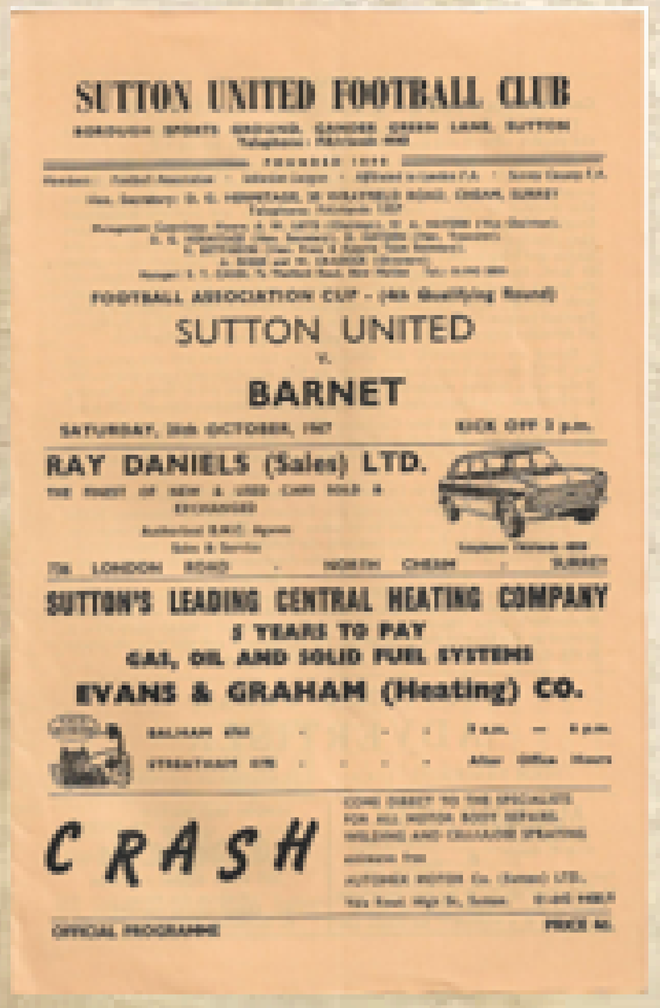

The busy month continued with the midweek visit of Wealdstone in the IL. 'Stones were enjoying a good start and sat second in the table. They dominated the first period, U's fortunate to go in at 1-1. A much improved display from the hosts saw the game end 2-2. There was no fixture the following Saturday as Derek Gamblin, Ted Powell and Pritchard were with the GB Olympic squad.

The following Monday, Sutton hosted a South of the Thames Cup 1st round tie with Corinthian-Casuals. Missing the three on GB duty plus Dario Gradi, United required extra-time to defeat a C-C side enjoying a better season than most of their '60s and '70s experiences would bring. Howard scored the only goal in the 118th minute. Debuts for Dave Morrish and Glyn Morris.

Featured Match
28th October v Barnet, FA Cup 4th Qualifying Round at GGL Att: 3,687

More SLP opposition in this FA Cup run and a step up in quality as the B's were unbeaten in the league. Sutton welcomed back the missing four from the C-C match with Morrish named as substitute. Bladon had recovered from a poisoned leg issue. The hosts would dominate this match but rely on a late goal from a highly unlikely source.

Blunt and Powell broke up anything Barnet could muster going forward while Hutchins' height was a focal point of U's attack. For the third consecutive tie, U's went behind (10th minute) when Figg jinked his way through to beat Dave Roffey. Two minutes later, an offside flag denied Howard but in the 17th minute, Bladon netted after Powell had headed on a Gradi free-kick. Pritchard and then Mellows hit the woodwork as U's dominated their semi-pro opponents.

After the break it was all Sutton again for the first twenty minutes but then Roffey denied Turley and two minutes later Figg raced onto a Searle pass to net his second goal. Mellows missed a sitter finding the crossbar from six yards out as Sutton piled on the pressure. In the 85th minute, left back Glynn Garfield hit a cross shot at goal and inexplicably, Barr, in the Barnet goal let the ball through his grip for an equaliser. It was Garfield's first goal for the club and he would score just one more. In the final moments Powell saw his effort cleared off the line.
U's: Roffey, Gamblin, Garfield, Powell, Blunt, Gradi, Mellows, Bladon, Hutchins, Pritchard, Howard.

October ended with the replay at Underhill on the following Tuesday. This was a totally different contest with Barnet looking like the semi-pro side they were. U's were hindered by the loss of Gamblin to a knee injury with the inexperienced Bill Wallace taking the right back berth. Hutchins outpaced the home defence to give Sutton a 37th minute lead but five minutes later Wallace was adjudged to have handled and Ward converted the spot kick. Eason gave Barnet the lead on the hour and five minutes later Searle's effort from distance deceived Roffey and Garfield turned goalkeeper; Ward rolled home his second penalty of the match. The month was over and so, too, U's fine FA Cup run.

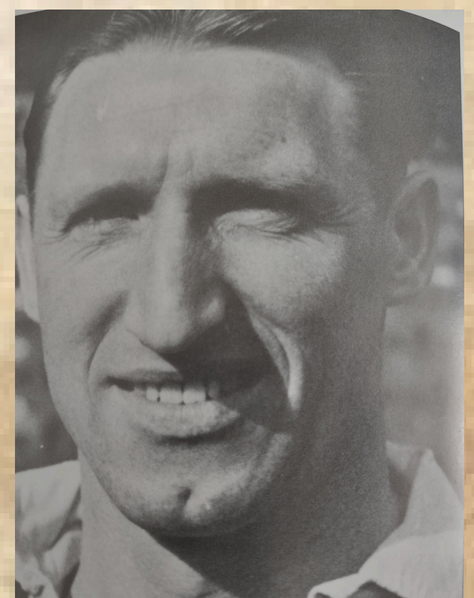

October record (league only) P3 W1 D2 L 0 F9 A4 Top IL scorer, Dave Hutchins with four.

FA Cup 4th Qual round at GGL

This afternoon is Sutton's 38th appearance in the 4QR, the first being at Gillingham back in November 1945 and remaining the stand out victory, 9-3. Eleven of these ties have required a replay, the most recent being last season's titanic battles with Farnham Town. Of those drawn ties, six have been at GGL and U's won four of the subsequent replays, the only losses being the Barnet match described above and the debacle at Billericay seven years ago.

Sutton last lost a home 4QR tie during the 2020/21 COVID season, a Michael Cheek penalty for Bromley the only goal. That was one of four home exits at this stage, the replay victory against Farnham last season being the eighth victory. U's biggest margin of victory was by 7-2 against Eastbourne United in October '66.
Home Record W8 D6 L4 F36 A22

SUFC v Truro City

While Sutton have a 100% win record from four visits to Cornwall, their home form against Truro is less than impressive. Last season's 3-0 defeat was the first match between the two sides in the NL while two NLS level matches have ended in 2-2 draws (December 2011 and August 2015); bottom placed Truro with only twelve available players defeated Sutton 1-0 in the NLS in March 2013.

However, the one cup tie between the two sides was heading for a draw and a long midweek trip for U's until Craig Dundas popped up with a last minute winner in an FA Trophy 1st round tie in December 2017.

U's home record (league only) W0 D2 L2 F4 A8

COLIN WOFFINDEN

More sad news following on from recent weeks and that is the passing of Colin Woffinden. Colin started his career as a centre-forward but would become a highly accomplished midfielder. Having played for Worthing, Brighton & Hove Albion and Eastbourne United, Colin signed for U's in the summer of 1971 from Lewes. While at Lewes he scored a hat-trick for the Athenian League against the Isthmian.

It would be a one season stay at GGL, making his full debut on 14th August 1971 against Hendon in the Isthmian League. He ended that season scoring twelve goals in 43 appearances, a loss of form and injury resulting him only playing a handful of games in the latter stages of the season (he had a dual registration with Hastings United).

The '71/2 season was Colin's first taste of Isthmian football but his early season form earned him a squad position for England amateurs; he also represented the FA. The summer of 1972 saw Colin join Walton & Hersham and he was part of the team that won the Amateur Cup at Wembley that season. Two seasons at W&H were followed by spells at Leatherhead (where he was part of their famous FA Cup run), Tooting & Mitcham United and Horsham before returning to GGL for the 1979/80 season now a fully-fledged midfielder. He added another 32 appearances and 8 goals to his SUFC career numbers. In the twilight of his career, Colin turned out for Southwick. He kept in touch with a number of his former Sutton playing colleagues all who have only positive experiences of his friendship. RIP Colin.

A round-up of the latest news from the Women's section.

Sunday 11th October
London & South East Regional League
NEWHAVEN 2 SUTTON UNITED 1

Newhaven recorded a first ever win against us last Sunday, a fine goal ten minutes in to the second half giving them the points after K'Shaela Burch Waldron's equally good effort had cancelled out the home team's opener.

Both goalkeepers were busy early on, Lizzy Knight saving in a one-on-one inside the first five minutes but Newhaven's Harriet Kwok was the busier, saving twice from Naomi Bradley and also denying Eden Clark and Georgis Heasman, while Heasman also shot over from close range from Emma Spear's cross.

Newhaven went in front five minutes before half time when Hannah Williams broke down the right and crossed low for Emilia Rauhaus to score at the far post, but with virtually the last kick of the half Burch-Waldron created space on the edge of the penalty area and sent a left footed shot past Kwok (below - photo Simon Spear).

The decisive moment came when Leah Miller's chip from just outside the penalty area drifted over Knight in to the net, and in the next five minutes Williams shot wide and Knight made a good save from Miller, but the last half hour saw little goalmouth activity as Newhaven saw out the win.

Sutton: Knight, Cockrell, Modak, Crook, Heavingham-Ford, Oliver, Spear, Burch-Waldron, Heasman, Bradley, Clark. Subs Meehan, Cutler, Baptiste, Allen, Gilbert-Lawal.

Tomorrow we are at home to league leaders Brentford, kick off 1.30pm (note earlier kick off) at the David Weir.

Our Under 23s extended their lead at the top of the Surrey Premier Division of the South East Counties League to three points with a 5-1 win at Croydon. It was a good afternoon for Maya Anderson, who scored a hat trick and assisted in the two other goals scored by Hannah Hevesy and Gloria Akandju.

Tomorrow we are away to South London in the first round of the Capital Intermediate Cup. The game is at Griffin Sports Ground in Dulwich Village, kick off 2pm.

FOUNDATION

MORE THAN A FOOTBALL MATCH.

Football has a wonderful way of creating memories. For some, those memories stretch back generations, passed down from parents to children and grandparents to grandchildren. For others, they begin with a much simpler moment: walking through the turnstiles for the very first time.

On Tuesday evening, as Sutton United hosted our National League Cup fixture, we had the opportunity to create that moment for hundreds of families from across the borough.

Through invitations to local schools, around 500 families joined us at Gander Green Lane, many experiencing their first-ever football match.

For those of us who spend our weeks around the club, it can be easy to take certain things for granted. The walk towards the ground, the noise of the crowd, the anticipation before kick-off and the feeling of watching a match unfold in front of you are all familiar parts of football.

But for a child experiencing it for the first time, none of it is ordinary.

The excitement of entering the stadium, seeing the players warm up, hearing the supporters and sharing the experience with family and friends can create memories that last long after the final whistle.

We may never know which children went home talking about their favourite player, which families began planning their next visit, or which young supporters discovered a new love for the game. But that is what makes evenings like Tuesday so special. We have the chance to open our doors, introduce new people to Sutton United and make them feel part of our club.

As we turn our attention to the FA Cup this weekend, it is worth remembering that football is about more than the result on the pitch. It is about the people in the stands, the families making memories and the next generation discovering what it means to support their local team.

For around 500 families, Tuesday night was an introduction to Sutton United. Hopefully, for many, it will not be their last.

Because every lifelong supporter has to start somewhere.

And sometimes, all it takes is a first visit to Gander Green Lane.

MATCH ACTION

Things might have been different had the ball been adjudged to have crossed the line when Brandon Njoku blocked a Ted Curd clearance after only a minute, but Curd was ruled to have got back to clear in time.

Apart from one Spike Brits save from Lewis Richardson we had the better of the first half, with Emmanuel Osadebe hitting the side netting, Temi Babalola heading just over from close range and Omar Mussa twice testing Curd, but the second half was a different story and after Brits had turned another Richardson shot past the post the resulting corner from Zak Brunt was headed powerfully goalwards by Chris Bush and this time the officials did decide that the ball had crossed the line before Jake Taylor's probably illegal intervention.

Brits made another good stop from Richardson but the sent a poor clearance straight to Regan Booty, and the resulting move ended with a simple finish for Danny Cashman. Curd made an excellent late save to deny Jermaine Francis a consolation goal.

AROUND THE GROUNDS

Louis Massingham-Rowell looks at the prospect of shocks in today's ties involving National League sides.

Bury v Harrogate Town:
The lunchtime game live on the BBC sees Simon Weaver's side travel to Bury. The Shakers are 11th in the Northern Premier League with several games in hand on sides around them. The Manchester side have lost once in their last eight in all competitions, scoring twenty-five goals in the process. Wins against Wythenshawe (8-0), Workington (5-1) and Bromsgrove Sporting (2-1) have provided Bury with the opportunity to reach the first round of the competition for the first time since their expulsion from the EFL in August 2019, should they beat Harrogate Town today.
Cup upset ranking: ★★★☆☆

AFC Fylde v Atherton Collieries:
AFC Fylde will be favourites to progress against Atherton Collieries, who sit 17th in the Northern Premier League West Division with thirteen points from nine games. The Colls are on a record-breaking run this season, reaching the fourth qualifying round for the first time in their history. On their way to this round, they beat Barnoldswick Town after a replay (2-0), Irlam Town (3-0), Northwich Victoria (3-2) and Trafford in a replay (3-0). They will need to be at their best to beat Fylde today, but with one defeat in their last six away games, they'll be full of hope.
Cup upset ranking: ★☆☆☆☆

Aldershot Town v Tadley Calleva:
Just seventeen miles separate these two Hampshire sides as Tadley Calleva visit the EBB Stadium today. The away side are, along with SE Dons, one of the last remaining sides from step five of non-league and they will look to continue their historic FA Cup run. They have surpassed last season's record run to the second qualifying round by beating Bemerton Heath Harlequins (2-1), Hamble Club after a replay (3-1), Laverstock & Ford (3-1), Bishops Cleeve (1-0) and Dartford (2-1). The Romans sit 11th in the Combined Counties Premier Division South and hope to extend Aldershot's poor run of form of one win in their last six games.
Cup upset ranking: ★☆☆☆☆

Altrincham v FC United of Manchester:
Last season's play-off semi-finalists in the Northern Premier League will be hoping to cause an upset in a Manchester derby between two teams separated by twenty miles. FC United have had a poor start to their league campaign, sitting 21st with one win and seven points from their twelve league games. Despite this, they scored twelve goals in their three FA Cup ties, beating Garforth Town (5-1), Ossett United (4-1) and National League North side Worksop Town (3-0). The Red Rebels will hope that former Premier League striker Adam Le Fondre can fire them to the first round for the first time since 2020, when they lost to League One side Doncaster Rovers.
Cup upset ranking: ★★☆☆☆

Barrow v Gloucester City:
Despite plying their trade in the Southern League Premier South division, Gloucester find themselves in the northern section of the draw and face a long trip to face in-form Barrow today. The Tigers are currently 19th in the division (in the relegation zone) with ten points from ten league games but are on a run of one defeat in nine games. Despite requiring a replay in the first qualifying round, they knocked out Mangotsfield United (4-0), AFC Totton (2-0) and Mulbarton Wanderers (2-1). Gloucester are in the middle of six consecutive away games and will hope to progress to the next round for the first time since 2012.
Cup upset ranking: ★☆☆☆☆

Chesham United v Forest Green Rovers:
Chesham will hope to knock out Forest Green today to reach the first round of the competition for the second time in three seasons. The National League South side lost to Lincoln City live on ITV two seasons ago and will be hoping to put aside their poor league form to progress. The Generals currently sit 19th with ten points from eleven league games. Their recent form suggests an entertaining affair, with thirty goals in their last five games. Wins against Ware (7-2) and Real Bedford (4-3) have got them to this stage, and facing a Forest Green side with no wins in their previous five games suggests goals will be on the cards at the Meadow today.
Cup upset ranking: ★★★☆☆

Eastleigh v Brentwood Town:
Brentwood are no strangers to cup shocks, having already beaten a higher-ranked side in the competition so far this season. Victories over Concord Rangers in a replay (4-2) and Aveley (3-2) set up a home tie against Dagenham & Redbridge live on BBC in the last round. The Blues deservedly beat the Daggers 3-1 to set up a trip to National League side Eastleigh today. Sitting 18th in the Isthmian League with three wins from ten games suggests the Essex side have slim hopes of reaching the first round for the first time since 1969. However, with one defeat in six games, they will fancy their chances against Eastleigh, who have won one of their last nine games.

Cup upset ranking: ★★★☆☆

FC Halifax Town v South Shields:
National League North title favourites at the start of the season, South Shields sit 5th in the division with twenty points. The Mariners face their fourth away game on the bounce today as they look to reach the first round for the fourth time in seven seasons. The North East side have beaten Witton Albion (7-0) and Buxton (2-0) to reach this stage of the competition. They face a tough test though, with Halifax unbeaten in their last six home games.
Cup upset ranking: ★★☆☆☆

Gateshead v Stafford Rangers:
Stafford Rangers come into their tie against National League basement boys, Gateshead, full of confidence, sitting 4th in the Northern Premier League West Division. The Boro have picked up twenty-four points from their nine league games and suffered one defeat in twelve. They will be a tough nut for the Heed to crack, conceding just seven goals in their nine league games. Wins against Tividale (5-0), Matlock Town (2-1), Northampton ON Chenecks (3-0), Hereford (3-2) and Halesowen Town (2-1) after a replay will give the Midlands side confidence they can progress to the first round for the first time since 2006.
Cup upset ranking: ★★★★★

Hartlepool United v Marine:
The last time Marine reached the first round, they went all the way to the third and hosted Tottenham Hotspur at Rossett Park. To progress, Marine will have to overcome a Hartlepool side who, after winning 4-2 at Forest Green, ended their run of six consecutive defeats last weekend. Marine sit 13th in the National League North and are yet to draw this season with fifteen points from eleven league games. The Mariners have beaten Radcliffe (3-2) and Warrington Town (2-0) to reach the fourth qualifying round. With five consecutive wins in all competitions, they will hope they can cause an upset against Pete Wild's side today.
Cup upset ranking: ★★★☆☆

Leatherhead v Yeovil Town:
After promotion back to the Isthmian League last season, Leatherhead sit 12th in the division with fifteen points from ten games. They face one of the toughest tests today as they welcome Yeovil to Fetcham Grove. The Tanners have lost one of their last eight games and have beaten AFC Croydon Athletic (3-0), Kingstonian (1-0) and Hanworth Villa (1-0) to reach the fourth qualifying round. To reach the first round for the first time since 2017, they will have to end Yeovil's six-game unbeaten run.
Cup upset ranking: ★☆☆☆☆

Southend United v Berkhamsted:
Berkhamsted have created history this season, reaching the fourth qualifying round for the first time in their short history. They've been rewarded with a trip to, arguably, the biggest side in the National League, Southend United. The Comrades are 9th in the Southern League Premier South with sixteen points. Wins against Bishop's Stortford (3-2), Hendon (4-1), and Redditch United (2-0) have provided them with a trip to Roots Hall today. With Southend scoring an average of 2.4 goals per game, Berkhamsted will have to cause the biggest shock of the round to beat the ex-Championship side.
Cup upset ranking: ★☆☆☆☆

Uxbridge v Hornchurch:
It has been 92 years since Uxbridge played in the FA Cup fourth qualifying round, and they will be looking to reach the first round for the first time in 141 years. The Reds are 3rd in the Southern Premier Division South and go top if they win their game in hand. They are in superb form with an unbeaten home run stretching back thirteen games, and one defeat in fifteen in all competitions this season. The West London side knocked out Haywards Heath Town (3-0), Farnborough (2-0) after a replay and Hungerford Town (3-1) on their way to today's game. The National League side will have to end a run of four away defeats on the bounce if they are to have any chance of reaching the next round of the competition.
Cup upset ranking: ★★★★★

MATCH ACTION

An entertaining game in which West Brom keeper Joe Wallis made a superb save early on to keep out a Charlie Bell volley, then saw his side go in front when Rio Parmar headed in Alfie Maughan's cross. We were soon level as Sam Folarin headed in a Bell cross from the left (above), and after Wallis had again done well to deny Temi Babalola, Bell then delivered an equally good cross from the right which Bobby Amartey headed in for his first Sutton goal.

Chris Haigh made a brilliant save low to his left early in the second half to keep out a William Unadike volley, and it looked as though we had made the game safe when the substitutes combined, Joe Knight winning a cchallenge in midfield and both Brandon Njoku and Omar Mussa finding their way to goal blocked before the ball ran back to Mussa who fired in to the corner of the net.

A poor pass out from Haigh gifted West Brom a way back, Parmar setting up Justin Seven-Seven to score, in the 77th minute, but we held on to keep our National League Cup hopes alive going in to the last round of games.
