NATIONAL LEAGUE CUP

vs SOUTHAMPTON
Tuesday,3rd November | 7pm KO

WELCOME TO SUTTON UNITED FOOTBALL CLUB

Setting the Scene

As the group stage of the National League Cup comes to an end we welcome everyone from Southampton this evening. As against West Brom, there is competition today for Saints' supporters' attention, coincidentally at The Hawthorns, but we welcome any who are London based and decided this was the easier journey.

This is the second season in a row in which we have met them in the competition, and while last season's game had nothing on it for either of us, tonight's has plenty riding on it from our point of view. Tim has gone through the permutations in his article, but, put simply, the best thing we can do tonight is win and then see what happens elsewhere.

After arguably our best result of the season so far on Saturday at Worthing, with the last two games hopefully a confidence booster ahead of our FA Cup tie at Guiseley on Saturday, our women completed a Woodside Road double on Sunday, goals from K'Shaela Burch-Waldron and Naomi Bradley giving us a 2-0 win. Further details are on our website and we will have a full update in the next programme.

Enjoy tonight's game.

CHRIS'S COLUMN

CHRIS AGUTTER

HEAD COACH

A warm welcome for tonight's National League Cup contest against Southampton FC Under 21s - we hope everyone in attendance has an enjoyable evening with us at the 360 Engage Stadium.

After a great week of league action where we continued our pursuit of the play-offs, putting six more important points on the board as well as two clean sheets along the way (we love clean sheets!), we now turn our attention to what is essentially a knockout game vs Adam Lallana's Southampton Under 21s. Tonight will be another tough test, a similar test in terms of style to our most recent opponents Worthing, a test which I believe suits our group - an opportunity to press, chase and hunt the team in front of us.

Our home record is positive, and tonight is another opportunity to improve that. Every successful team boasts a strong home record - it's important that our support sees us winning on our own patch, it's important to build a positive feeling around the team and the club as a whole, and the quickest way to do that is win games at home.

Thank you for your continued support, the Amber Army were absolutely magnificent away at Worthing, the connection we had as players, staff and supporters was special, it's something that is priceless, something that we have to continue to strive for, game in, game out.

TIM ALLISON
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

We are now into November and the club's cup participation is once more of primary importance. After back to back league wins – without conceding a goal – we now go back to back in knock out matches. On Saturday the more prestigious FA Cup is our target, with an away trip to Yorkshire to face Guiseley, but first it's the final match of the group stages of the National League Cup this evening when our fate will be decided. It's not quite in our hands, as if we win we can still finish below the top two, but we should certainly know what we are aiming to do tonight.

Barring a spectacular set of results it seems highly probable Truro City will be progressing, which leaves the second spot in the group up for grabs. Currently filled by Woking, who like us have six points but with a superior goal difference, they are our most obvious rivals. But it is also possible for the two clubs with five points to progress at both our expenses. It is that tight.

Getting a better outcome than Woking then is the immediate target, but might still not be enough. A win when they don't, or a penalty winning draw with them also drawing but losing the shoot out, will suffice (unless in the latter scenario WBA beat Truro by more than one goal!). So winning the game in normal time with Woking failing to do the same makes the calculations easy and should therefore be the ambition.

To make things even more complicated our match is a 7pm kick-off whilst the tie at Woking has been scheduled for 7.45pm.

Of course we have already faced the Southampton Under 21 team once this year, in pre-season, when we came out winners in early August 3-2, a more comfortable victory than the scoreline suggests.

Southampton find themselves with just three points in the table after the opening three games, and with no prize money at stake tonight's participation represents for them nothing more than a dead rubber. Woking's opponents Birmingham City at least have a (very!) slender chance of progressing.

Saturday's match is a much easier one to analyse in terms of outcomes for sure. Let's hope by the next time I am writing programme notes we have gone four games in a row with wins.

Up the U's.

Founded: 1885

Nickname: The Saints

Manager: Adam Lallana

Top Scorer: Princewill Ehibhatiomhan (16)

Adam Lallana took over as manager of Southampton's Under 21s in January, having previously been the assistant first team manager under Simon Rusk and Russell Martin.

He enjoyed a long and successful playing career, joining the Southampton Academy from Bournemouth and going on to play over 200 senior games for the club before a £25 million move to Liverpool in 2014. He played nearly 200 games in six years at Anfield, then spent four years at Brighton & Hove Albion before returning to St Mary's in 2024, finishing his career in June 2025 with 283 Saints' appearances to his name and 60 goals.

Internationally he played 34 times for England, appearing at the 2014 World Cup and the 2016 European Championships, and his three goals included the only England goal scored under Sam Allardyce's management.

Adam Lallana

MEET THE MANAGER

THE KEY

Korban McMullan
Midfielder

Korban McMullan is one of the newer Southampton prospects, as he signed his first professional contract last year. A talented, technically gifted young midfielder, he is able to get on the ball and control games with his passing ability.

Despite playing in midfield McMullan has scored and assisted once this season, showing his attacking threat. One of McMullan's goals came in the National League Cup as he helped guide his team to a thrilling 6-5 win over Boston United and he is a real threat if allowed to get on the ball and start dictating the game.

Sufianu Sillah Dibaga

Forward

Sufianu Sillah Dibaga is an exciting young winger, whose talent has already led him to play for Saints first team, appearing last season in a 2-1 victory over Leicester City in the FA Cup.

Dibaga signed for Southampton in 2023 from Crystal Palace's academy on a scholarship deal. Since then he's gone on to sign his professional deal, and signed a new extension in February following his first team appearance.

A skilful technical attacker, Dibaga was also on the scoresheet in the game at Boston and has all the tools in his box to cause major concern to defenders and definitely a player to look out for.

Princewill Ehibhatiomhan

Forward

Talented striker Princewill Ehibhatiomhan is Southampton U21s' number nine. Standing at 6'4" the striker is a threat with his back to goal or making darting runs in behind.

Ehibhatiomhan signed a professional contract in 2023 and a one year extension in 2025, and has already had a taste of men's football as he went on two loan spells last season, both in League Two as he spent the first half of the season at Swindon Town, scoring on his debut against Cardiff City in the EFL Cup, and the second part of the season at Salford City.

This season he's already scored sixteen goals in all competitions, including two hat tricks, and will be looking to score for the seventh consecutive league and cup game tonight.

CUP TIES IN NOVEMBER

It would be impossible to cover U's FA Cup history in this month, in the space allowed so here, as for the WBA programme, I visit U's Amateur Cup matches during the month we are currently in.

The first was in U's second season as a senior club – 1911 - and having defeated East Grinstead the reward was a 3rd qualifying round tie at home to Redhill. The visitors had already thrashed U's by 6-0 in the FA Cup (a match also used as a league fixture) and once again were too strong for Sutton, winning by 3-0. This match was played on the London Road ground.

Sutton failed to progress beyond the early rounds for a decade and thus the next November match in the competition wasn't until 1921, their first season as an Athenian League club. Played on Guy Fawkes Day, U's took on Burberry's Athletic (I wonder how aesthetic their kit was?) at a venue in New Malden with around 500 spectators in attendance. This was a replayed tie as the original had fallen foul of the light the week before. A penalty from Charlie Hooker and a Harold White strike proved enough to see Sutton through 2-0. The run ended five weeks later in the first round at St Albans City.

Three years later and having battled through the first two qualifying rounds, a much weakened United team was soundly defeated by 3-0 at Mitcham Wanderers at their Streatham Lane enclosure.

November 14th 1925 and the visit of Tooting Town in the 3rd qualifying round drew an attendance to the Adult School ground of around 2,000. Dennis Bond and Surrey cricketer Charlie Daily scored in a 2-2 draw. The replay a week later saw U's win by 1-0, H Streeter scoring, but a fortnight later they went out of the competition at West Norwood.

Two seasons on and U's first Athenian League title campaign also saw them register their best run in the Amateur Cup to that point, reaching the second round proper before losing at Nunhead.

Featured Match
12th November 1927 v Dorking, 3rd qualifying round at Pixham Lane

The Supporters' Club arranged a 28 seat charabanc for this trip to the Surrey Hills town and it would prove worthwhile. U's superior football was plain to see as Dorking offered a simpler approach to their play; as a result, Sutton dominated proceedings.

However, the Surrey Senior League hosts took a shock lead in the 20th minute through Clayton but sixteen minutes later Albert Savage (right), who would score a club record 64 goals during the season and join Crystal Palace in the summer. burst through to level and just before the break, George Russ scored to give U's a narrow lead.

Sutton's attacking superiority came to the fore in the second period. Playing down the slope Savage completed his hat-trick early in the half and George Smith made it 5-1. Still not done, U's added two more goals late on, both scored by Russ to complete his treble. The score 7-1 in U's favour.

U's: Bedford, Lever, Bennett, Wright, Levy, Goddard, Shillabeer, Russ, Savage, Smith, Bond

The 1928/29 Amateur Cup run would see the club reach the semi-final but then be thrown out of the competition for fielding two players who had allegedly played Sunday football (against the rules back then). The November fixture was in the 3rd qualifying round and brought the Metropolitan Police team to the ASG. Sutton won by 4-0, although the score line was a little flattering. Smith (2), David Beaven and Archie Mason on target.

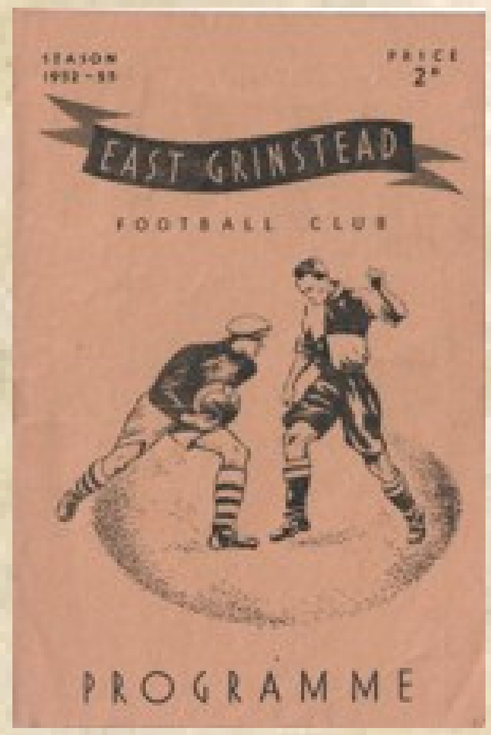

Perhaps as a further punishment for the rule breach, U's had to go through qualifying again the following season and the run ended in the November match in the 3rd qualifying round, losing heavily at Redhill by 4-0. 1930/31, U's didn't make it to November in the competition, and in early November 1931 they again went out at Redhill, this time to the tune of 6-2 as the early part of this decade proved difficult both on and off the pitch for the club. 1932 and '33 saw more early exits but in 1934 U's made the third round proper. The third and fourth qualifying rounds fell in the month of November. A 2-1 win at Epsom Town (Richard Tarrant and Tipper Pratt) was followed by a 2-0 success over PO Engineers based in Wallington with the goals again coming from Tarrant and Pratt.

November 1935 and revenge over Redhill in the 3QR by 8-2 at The Memorial Ground. S Jordan, who later joined Tottenham Hotspur, scored four goals and Tarrant three. And still in November, in the 4QR U's again defeated the PO team this time at the now Borough Sports Ground by 5-3 (Tarrant 2, "Dusty" Miller 2 and Basil Solly scoring) 3,000 in attendance. The run ended in the fourth round at Romford.

That was the last AC match in November for Sutton until 1950 as they enjoyed a run of qualification exemption. November 1950 and a trip to North London and a humiliating 4QR exit by 4-0 to Edgware Town. The following season, U's faired better at home to Leatherhead by 4-2, having led 4-0 at half-time. Interest was ended by Corinthian-Casuals 2-1 in the first round.

1952 brought a 4QR trip to Sussex County League side, East Grinstead and U's squeezed through by 2-1 (Dennis Dodd and Ron Sheppard) but exited the competition to the tune of 5-3 at home to Hounslow Town in the next round. The following season U's were paired with Storey Athletic (later became East Ham United, now defunct after a brief amalgamation with Barking). The hosts had only gained senior status two years before and played in the London League. They gave Sutton a fright and the U's needed two goals from teenage forward Tony Barton to eek out a 2-2 draw. The replay a week later also proved difficult for a Sutton team having a poor season but a Keith Morton goal saw them through (3,000 attended) only to lose at Barnet, 7-0 in the first round. Barton would later manage Aston Villa to European Cup success in 1982.

November 1954 and a home tie with Surrey Senior League Banstead Athletic. These were halcyon days for Banstead and they enjoyed title success at their level but they should have not caused U's any problems. However, former Sutton youth forward Billy Robinson proved a catalyst as they stunned United with a 3-2 success. U's gained revenge in the Surrey Senior Cup three months later and a week after that, Robinson made his senior debut for Sutton.

The following season, Sutton and Worthing met for the first time and after a goalless first half, U's defeated their Corinthian League visitors 3-0 before losing in a replay at Clapton in the first round.

More Sussex opposition in 1956 and a trip to the coast as Sussex County League club Southwick hosted a 4QR tie. Future club chairman, Peter Molloy, scored twice from the left flank as U's won by 3-1 on the way to a third round exit to Tooting & Mitcham United (losing a replay at GGL by 3-0 in front of a crowd of 7,000).

Exemptions followed until 1960 when U's appeared in the Amateur Cup in November for the final time. This was on the 26th and a straight forward home tie with Woolwich Polytechnic. The Kent Amateur League side had caused a shock by defeating Herne Bay in the 3QR but U's won this at a canter, 6-1, with Norman Dearlove, Eddie Green and Alan Sunnucks all registering braces. The run ended in the fourth round at Leytonstone.

SUFC v Southampton

This is The Saints' fifth visit to GGL, the most recent a 3-2 pre-season win for Sutton in August. This is the second time the sides have met in the NL Cup, U's winning the last group stage match last season(a dead rubber) by 4-1 with Kai Jennings, Lewis Simper, Brandon Njoku and Mo Dabre, his only goal for the club (right), on target. Prior to that, two pre-seasons visits for Southampton, the first in 2010 under the guise of the Presidents' Cup ended in a 1-1 draw, Craig Dundas for United, in front of 876 spectators. The visitors fielded two future England internationals in Alex Oxlade-Chamberlain and Rickie Lambert, the latter scored their goal. Two years later, U's defeated a Saints XI 4-0 in a friendly with Kezie Ibe scoring twice.
