WELCOME TO SUTTON UNITED FOOTBALL CLUB

Setting the Scene

Good afternoon and welcome to today's Enterprise National League game, and a welcome to everyone who has travelled from Boston today.

Like our opponents last week, Boston are closer to the foot of the table than they would like, but as we saw last Saturday that counted for little when the game started and we will be hoping for a better outcome today.

Another warm welcome today is to Archie Stevens, who joined us yesterday on loan from Arsenal until January. Although he has spent quite a bit of his career in Scotland having signed for Glasgow Rangers as a 16-year-old, he is actually from Surbiton and is an England youth international who we hope enjoys his time with us.

This is our last home game for just under a month, with our FA Cup exit meaning a blank day on December 5th and an FA Trophy draw sending us to Dagenham the following Saturday, and when we do reconvene here in four weeks' time it will be for a 12.30pm kick off against Kidderminster.

In the mean time there are games for our Under 19 and women's teams, and we have given details on the respective pages in today's programme. Please check the website before going to a game to confirm venues and kick off times.

Enjoy today's game.

CHRIS'S COLUMN

CHRIS AGUTTER

HEAD COACH

A warm welcome to the 360 Engage Stadium for today's Enterprise National League match against Boston United.

We also extend our welcome and wish a safe journey to and from Gander Green Lane to Boston United's staff, players and supporters today. They're a good side, and we have no doubt that they will very quickly climb the league table now the real season starts with the winter months arriving. Boston have had a slow start, but that happens. No prizes are given out in August, and as I said, they will start to climb.

We've trained really well this week and there's a great energy amongst the group. The camaraderie and togetherness across the whole squad is top. Sutton United's first team is an enjoyable place to be, the group is full of cracking personalities which really does add to the privilege of being a football manager.

A busy few weeks ahead of us - an exciting few weeks ahead of us. We're looking forward to the challenge, starting today with Boston United.

TATTS TALKS

PHIL TATTERSALL
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Good afternoon everyone and a very warm welcome to the 360 Engage Stadium to all U's fans and to the visiting players, officials and supporters of Boston United for today's Enterprise National League fixture.

Boston United were proud founder members of the Alliance Premier League (now National League) in 1979 and were one of our opponents in our first season at this level in 1986. The Pilgrims spent five seasons as an EFL club, having won the fifth tier title in 2001/2; then, following a tougher period in the club's history, returned to the National League by winning the National League North Play-Off final in 2024. We know Paul Hurst and his team will provide their usual very stiff challenge to us today.

Having not had a Saturday home League fixture since the end of September before last week, today's encounter is our second in a row. It was wonderful to see nearly 4,000 fans packed into the Lane for the match against Solihull Moors – obviously the result didn't go our way in that game, but I hope some of those less regular fans who came last week will come back and support the team today, especially as the vagaries of the fixture calendar have now decreed that our next four matches are all away from home!

There's always a back story to a cup draw and the balls drawn out of the velvet bag at Monday's FA Trophy draw paired us with our friends at Dagenham & Redbridge and a chance to renew acquaintances with ex-Sutton firm favourite, Harry Beautyman, (he of nearly 400 appearances in amber), as well as Liam Vincent, Davide Rodari and Kane Crichlow. We look forward to seeing them all again on 12th December.

Off the pitch it has been another very busy week. It was terrific to see nearly 250 people in the MBA Lounge to watch "Mainly Madness" at last Friday night's Boom Boom Club gig – the new promoters have come up with a great list of tribute bands for the year ahead with something to entice all tastes; from Queen to Oasis, the Rolling Stones to ELO, Red Hot Chili Peppers to the Jam, the Eagles to the Smiths and all stations in between! If you haven't been along, give it a go (boomboomclubsutton.com) – you won't be disappointed.

One of our aims is to utilise the rooms in the stadium more often during the week, daytime and evenings, whether it be the MBA Lounge, bars or Board Room. So; if you or anyone you know, is looking to hire a room for a meeting, a party or event of any type, please do let us know by contacting jude.horspool@suttonunited.net ; he would be delighted to hear from you and to accommodate your requirements.

This week, we announced four new appointments to the Board of Sutton United FC as an intrinsic part of the Club's next phase of development. Costa Alexiou, Mark Boulter, Steve Dunne and Trish Fivey join the team and bring vast commercial experience and extensive capabilities across elite sport, global business, technology and local community leadership. The new Board has been carefully and deliberately constructed to bring the level of commercial experience and abilities, and depth and breadth of business relationships, which the club needs to advance its next phase. Our new team is now busy working on Sutton United's longer-term strategy and priorities, both on and off the pitch. It is such an exciting time to be part of our wonderful club. Watch this space!

Back to the here and now and difficult though it is to believe, Christmas is just around the corner. Without another home League game until 19th December, now is the time to be thinking about gifts for your loved ones, especially as we have a Black Friday deal running until Monday 30th November; all stock in the club shop at today's match and on-line via shop.suttonunited.net are available at 20% discount. So many goodies to choose from and bargains to be had!

Thank you all for your continued tremendous support of the team and the club – let's really get behind the boys today and cheer Agi and the team on as we look to pick up three more important points. You are very much our 12th man.

Enjoy the game and up the U's!

Forever Amber

MEET THE MANAGER

Paul Hurst began his second spell in charge of Boston at the beginning of this year, having previously managed them between 2009 and 2011.

As a player, apart from a loan spell at Burton Albion towards the end of his career, he was a one-club man, playing over 400 games for Rotherham United between 1992 and 2008.

On finishing his playing career he began in management at Ilkeston Town as joint manager with Rob Scott, a former Rotherham team-mate and ex-Sutton player, and guided them to promotion to National League North before the pair left to join Boston in May 2009, and again won promotion to National League North.

In 2011 they moved to take over at Grimsby Town, with Hurst then assuming control on his own two years later, and ending Grimsby's six year absence from the EFL in 2016.

In 2018 he joined Shrewsbury, lifting them away from the League One relegation zone and then reaching the play-off final the following season, and after brief spells in charge of Ipswich and Scunthorpe he returned to Grimsby in 2020. Although unable to prevent them falling back out of the EFL he guided them to a return a year later and then supervised a run to the quarter finals of the FA Cup for the first time as Grimsby became the first side in the competition's history to beat five clubs from a higher level in the same season.

He spent most of 2024 in a second spell as Shrewsbury manager before returning to Boston in January 2026.

THE KEY

Jamie Grimes
Defender

Jamie Grimes is the veteran at the back for Boston, as the 35 year old has almost 500 senior games under his belt. Grimes started his career at Swansea City coming through their youth academy and signing a professional contract with them.

He went on to play for a number of clubs before in 2021 he moved to National League side Chesterfield. He would go on to make 166 league appearances for The Spireites helping them gain promotion to the EFL in 2024.

After a year and a half with them in League Two he joined Boston on loan midway through last season, impressing enough with his calm organisation and defending to earn a permanent move this season.

Ken Oboh

Forward

Ken Aboh is a winger who currently is contracted to Championship side Norwich City and on loan at Boston.

Aboh rose through the ranks with the Canaries and has been sent out on loan various times firstly to Stevenage and then to Colchester United. Last season he joined Boston on an initial one month loan, but due to his impressive performances his loan was extended on a further two occasions times as he spent the remainder of the season with the Pilgrims.

Boston then decided to get him back for this campaign showing his worth to the club, and he is currently on loan until January.

Aboh has had a great start to the season scoring three goals in the first four league games, and he also has three assists so far. A winger with great 1v1 ability, Aboh is someone we'll have to keep an eye on this afternoon.

Tom Cursons
Forward

Tom Cursons is the main man up top for Boston and has already scored seven goals and got one assist in the league this season.

Cursons started his career at the Metropolitan Police football team and also played for Gainsborough, Long Eaton and Barwell before joining Ilkeston Town in 2024. This is where Cursons would make a name for himself as he scored 33 goals in 44 league games across one and a half seasons.

This impressive run of form led him to sign his first professional deal with Harrogate Town in January 2025. A year later he joined Boston, scoring the only goal of the game against us in February on his home debut and playing a massive role in Boston's climb to mid-table safety. Cursons has again displayed his impeccable finishing ability this season and with the movement to match he is always a danger to defences.

A BLAST FROM THE PAST

We pick a notable clash with Boston United from the U's 128 year history

2-0

Saturday 27th January 1990 | Borough Sports Ground
Attendance: 759

This game represents our last victory against Boston, and at the time was an important result for us as we were in 16th place in the GM Vauxhall Conference table after a run of four defeats in our last five league games. Boston, however, were in bigger trouble and made the trip in the relegation zone, two points from safety.

After the recent departure of manager George Kerr, experienced defender Dave Cusack was in temporary charge and for much of the first half his line-up frustrated us, although Cusack himself was required to haul Efan Ekoku back on one occasion to pick up the afternoon's only booking.

London had been hit by damaging storms in the previous 24 hours and the game was played in intermittent rain on a heavy pitch, and unsurprisingly was not a great spectacle. Paul McKinnon had our best first half effort, shooting wide from 25 yards, while John McGinlay almost took advantage of a mistake by Stuart Hemsley but couldn't hit the target.

Early in the second half Carey Anderson headed Gwynne Berry's cross back for Ekoku, whose downward header (above) seemed certain to give us the lead until Boston keeper John McKenna made a brilliant save. Then a quick break by Ekoku and Anderson resulted in Anderson setting up McKinnon to sweep a shot past McKenna. Eleven minutes from time the points were secured when McKinnon sent Ekoku away on the left and then made ground to meet the resulting cross with a fine header.

Boston would gain revenge four weeks later with a 3-1 win at York Street and would ultimately finish away from trouble in 18th, while winning nine of our last thirteen league games saw us finish in 8th place.

Sutton: N Sullivan, P Gates, T Flanagan(sub J Hawkins 78), T Rains, S Hemsley, P Rogers, G Berry, C Anderson, E Ekoku, P McKinnon, M Hanlan. Subs n/u S Barwick.

Boston: J McKenna, P Shirtliff, D Grant(Sub S Hamill 81), M Cook, M Hardy, D Cusack, S Buckley, W Gamble(sub C Cook 75), J McGinlay, S McEwan, W Campbell.

HISTORIC RAMBLINGS

Written by Mark Frake.

For this season I will be reviewing a month that today's fixture falls in from a given year.

1936

Chris Richards had continued as team manager (his second spell in the role) often referred to as Hon 1st Team Secretary. However, team selection was still the responsibility of a Committee. Thankfully, the selection policy had been consistent to this point of the season. A number of this group have since become club legends including goalkeeper Ralph Carr, left back Bill Shepherd, left half Claude Pettitt and forwards Basil Solly, Richard Tarrant and "Tipper Pratt".

The first two months or so of the season had brought just one Athenian League reverse but Sutton went into November on the back of a 7-2 hiding at Barnet. An early exit to Kingstonian in the FA Cup had been experienced.

Featured Match
7th November v Barking,
Athenian League at Vicarage Field

A trip to Barking on the back of the heavy defeat at Underhill would have been looked at with some trepidation. While Barking had not had a great start to the season, U's had never won there and seen 13-0 and 11-2 humiliations in the mid 1920s. The two sides had battled out a goalless draw at GGL a month earlier.

From the vanquished team at Barnet, Alf Reeve (who would later be killed during WWII) returned to the half back line which allowed Jack Daley to resume his role as inside left, replacing Dusty Miller in the process. Daley would be prominent in a fine team display.

The hosts started well and enjoyed the first fifteen minutes as the wet pitch was slowly was slowly churned to mud. Daley left the pitch for eight minutes with a cut head, adding to the laceration over one of his eyes from a previous battle. However, in the 15th minute Hugh Pratt and Solly combined on the right to set up Tarrant who fired past home 'keeper Newton. Not long after, Herbert "Tipper" Pratt escaped down the left flank and his pass was hammered home by the arriving Daley. Carr was forced into one fine save by future Sutton manager Frank Butterworth before Tarrant ended a fine move with another stinging strike right on half-time.

Immediately from the restart, Solly made great progress to set up Tarrant who held off an opponent to apply a neat finish for his hat-trick. Hugh Pratt missed a "sitter" but three minutes later he set up Tarrant to shoot powerfully past Newton for his fourth goal and Sutton's fifth. Late on Barking was awarded a penalty but Richardson saw his effort held at full stretch by Carr; 5-0 it ended, a fourteen season bogey ended and in some style.

U's: Carr, Webb, Shepherd, Reeve, Reeves, Pettitt, Hu Pratt, Solly, Tarrant, Daley, He Pratt

The following Saturday, second placed Sutton hosted fourth place Romford who were just one point behind U's with three games in hand. They leap-frogged Sutton with a 2-1 success. Seven days later and a visit to struggling Uxbridge saw U's win by 4-0 with Solly netting twice and both Pratts (they were not related) scoring from their respective flanks.

The month ended (28th) with the return against Romford and the Essex side gave a masterclass as they soundly defeated U's by 6-0. Had they doubled their tally it would not have been an injustice as the hosts sliced through Sutton's defences relentlessly.

After a mixed bag of results, United ended November in third place in the Athenian League but it was a false position as they had played more games than most; in one case, seven more!

The four goals scored by Richard Tarrant (above) in the featured match meant he was top scorer for the month although his next goal wouldn't arrive until Boxing Day in a friendly fixture; his next competitive goal was on the second Saturday of January a highly uncharacteristic eight match barren spell.

November record (league only) P3 W2 D0 L2 F10 A8

The story of this season would be an Amateur Cup run to the semi-final, losing to Leyton in a replay and defeating Romford away from home in the third round by 4-3 – a stunning result. U's did end their season by winning the Surrey Charity Shield, finishing fourth in the AL some twelve points behind champions Romford; both they and Walthamstow Avenue broke the three figure mark in goals from just twenty-six matches.

SUFC v Boston United

Last season Boston continued to enjoy the better of GMV Conference/ National League fixtures with Sutton by taking four of the six points available. The teams drew 1-1 here and Boston won the return by 1-0.

The 2024/25 term saw Boston complete the league double over Sutton. While the 3-0 win at GGL in September '24 was comprehensive in scoreline at least, The Pilgrims were arguably a tad fortunate with their 2-1 home win, scoring late on a windy afternoon at the Jakemans Community Stadium.

Those two matches were the first between the two clubs since March 1991 and in the interim period both have enjoyed EFL status. As stated above, Boston have the upper hand being unbeaten against Sutton at their old York Street stadium (as well as at The Jakeman), U's picking up three draws in five visits, while at GGL they recorded one win in September 1987. Of the other four Sutton won two by 3-1 in January '87 and 2-0 also in January, this time 1990. That was U's last success against Boston and we will look to end a five match winless run, albeit over a twenty-five year period, this afternoon.

We scored three goals for the third game in a row as we moved in to the top five of the table, going ahead in the 25th minute when Nico Schipper broke down the right and crossed to the far post where Jojo Ampah had a tap-in to score, also for a third game running. We almost gifted Maidstone an equaliser when Lewis Bullen picked up a goal kick that had been taken but then was out quickly to smother the shot from the resulting free kick six yards out.

Oscar Oguli headed against the post and Haniel Boateng saw a header come down off the bar as we looked for a second goal early in the second half, and although Bullen had to make one good save in a scramble we always looked on top and with quarter of an hour left some neat skill from Ollie Grimes as he controlled a ball that had been sent high in to the air was followed by a shot on the turn in to the net from twenty yards. Stiven Muca added to the scoreline a minute from time, creating space to shoot low in off the far post from the edge of the penalty area.

Sutton: Bullen, Oguli, Katana(Smart 85), San Norton, Boateng, Humphries, Schipper(Lleshi 55), Muca, Iworh(Bello 55), Grimes, Ampah(Ojugo 67). Sub n/u N'zi.

SUFC WOMEN

The latest news from our women's teams

Wednesday 18th November
London & South East Regional League
SUTTON UNITED 1 HAMMERSMITH 3

A tightly contested game was won by the side that took more of its chances as Hammersmith recovered from going behind to Milly Cutler's penalty to move up to third place in the table.

Hammersmith might have scored after only 25 seconds when Eden Clark was forced in to a fine block in the six yard box and Lizzy Knight saved well from the resulting corner, and she made one more good save as Hammersmith had the better early chances while Vicky Neuefeind put a good chance wide.

However we went in front in first half stoppage time when K'Shaela Burch-Waldron was brought down (left below) and Milly Cutler converted the penalty (right - pictures: Simon Spear).

Hammersmith went straight to the other end and Neuefeind equalised with a shot across Knight and in off the far post.

We started the second half well with Emily Oliver and Cutler both having shots saved, but against the run of play Neuefeind scored her second with a shot that Knight got hands to but couldn't prevent from dropping in to the net, and Kelly Francis added a third with just under twenty minutes left when she rounded Knight and scored from close range.

Francis and Hope Mumford both missed clear chances to increase the lead, while at the other end Emma Spear sent a late chance to set up an exciting finish wide of the near post.

Sutton: Knight, Allen, Meehan, Crook, Heavingham-Ford, Oliver, Spear, Burch-Waldron, Cutler, Bradley, Clark. Subs Adetunji, Cockerell, Modak, Rafique.

There is no first team game this weekend, with the next game at home to Newhaven next Sunday at the David Weir, kick off 1.30pm.

Other games scheduled before the next home first team game are a second encounter with Hammersmith, this time in the League Cup, at the David Weir on Sunday 6 December (1.30pm) and an away game at Millwall Lionesses on Sunday 13 December. The current league table is below.

The Under 23s continue to hold a healthy lead at the top of the Surrey Premier Division of the South East Counties League, despite being held to a 1-1 draw against Oxted at Horley last Sunday, Hannah Hevesy scoring our goal. This followed consecutive 5-0 wins away to Kingsmeadow (Maya Anderson, Cassie Chase, Gloria Okandju 3) and at home to Chessington & Hook (Anderson, Bonnie Quaintance 2, Rachel Marlow, Okandju). We have also made cup progress since the last notes, winning 2-1 against South London at Dulwich (Anderson, Okandju) in the Capital Intermediate Cup and having a walkover in the Surrey Divisional Cup against Camberley Town.

Tomorrow we are at home to Walton & Hersham at the David Weir (1.30pm) and other coming games are on Sunday 6 December away to Milford & Witley and Sunday 13 December away to Fleet Town. The current league table is below.

FOUNDATION

HEAD OF THE FOUNDATION BOBBY CHILDS TALKS ABOUT ACTIVITIES AND AIMS

Welcome to today's game with Boston United.

Now that Harry has joined the club full time, we thought it was about time that I spoke about the Foundation and, over the home games, introduced you to its staff.

Chris Corner, a local resident and supporter, works for us part-time and has done well developing our 'Every Body' sessions. Chris is supported by our very keen volunteers Karen Bagley, Rob & Judy.

We started two years ago with a Parkinson's football session at Goals Cheam that is still going, with 30+ members who have formed an excellent social and support network.

The 'Every Body' idea comes through clearly: welcoming, adaptable activities where people can move at their own pace, build confidence and friendships, and feel part of the community. The sessions include walking football, walking tennis, Nordic walking, boxing and indoor sports.

We describe the Foundation's wider aim as improving wellbeing and tackling social isolation, with participation open to people of all ages and abilities.

These sessions are about more than sport—they're about making it easier for people to take part, connect and feel they belong. The published details emphasise a supportive atmosphere, activities adapted to different abilities, and no pressure to be experienced or particularly fit.

The Sutton United Foundation brings people together through inclusive sport, wellbeing and learning activities.

The shared aim is to make activities welcoming and accessible, while helping people improve their wellbeing, meet others and feel part of the local community. Please recommend these to your friends and come and join us. Please visit the Foundation website for timings and venues.

Enjoy the game

AROUND THE GROUNDS

A look at the past week's action in the Enterprise National League.

All eyes were on Roots Hall last night when runaway Enterprise National League leaders Boreham Wood visited Southend, and the game didn't disappoint.

Boreham Wood roared in to a 3-0 lead with little more than half an hour gone thanks to Oliver Bainbridge, Ben Whitfield and Zak Brunt, and although Southend came back in the second half with two goals in two minutes from Tyreece Simpson and, on his debut, Rico Richards, they were unable to find a third and Wood now lead the table by thirteen points.

The leaders' advantage had been cut last Saturday to ten after their run of nine consecutive wins was ended by a 2-2 draw at Yeovil, who responded to Tyler Golden's early goal with two in three minutes through Archie Davies and a Slasi Spasov penalty before Lewis Richardson levelled eleven minutes from time. It might have been worse for Luke Garrard's side, though, with Yeovil awarded another penalty five minutes later, but with Spasov now substituted Mason Obeng put the spot kick over the bar.

Southend themselves came from behind to beat Aldershot 2-1, with the visitors scoring early through Anisius Lewis, but then losing John Gilbert to a red card. They were unable to hold on with ten men as second half goals from Kyle McAdam and Tyreece Simpson, the second after former U Omari Patrick's shot had been parried, gave Southend the points.

Harrogate, who go to Worthing today, maintained second place with a comfortable victory over Altrincham. Simon Weaver's team also benefitted from an opposition red card, Reuben Lopata-White sent off after just twelve minutes, and took full advantage with four unanswered second half goals from Will McGowan, Morgan Williams, Michael Craig and Rohan Vaughan.

Fylde remain hot on the heels of the top three after a 2-1 win at Eastleigh. Luke McCormick's goal at the end of the first half was cancelled out by Aaron Blair at the start of the second, but McCormick struck again just after the hour mark to give Fylde a victory that saw Eastleigh part company with Matt Gray.

Worthing remain in the play-off places after a 1-1 draw at Scunthorpe, whose new manager Andy Preece had our former forward James Norwood to thank for a stoppage time equaliser after Jordan Young had given Worthing a first half lead.

Altrincham's defeat at Harrogate allowed Carlisle to move in to the top seven for the first time this season. Goals in each half from Leo Duru and Regan Linney against our visitors today were enough to claim a fourth successive league win.

Barrow moved to within one point of the play-off zone after inflicting a tenth consecutive defeat on bottom club Gateshead. Keaton Ward scored in the first half and Innes Cameron converted a penalty eighteen minutes from time, but their thunder was stolen by goalkeeper Ben Winterbottom, whose free kick from inside his own half flew over opposite number Max Thompson, who was making his Gateshead debut.

Gateshead, Scunthorpe and Solihull remain the bottom three, but Solihull's third win on the spin did move them level on points with Hartlepool, who were denied victory against Wealdstone by Reiss McNally's stoppage time own goal. Brooklyn Ilunga's first senior goal had put Pools ahead with eleven minutes left, but Wealdstone headed back south with a point despite not having a shot of their own on target.

Tamworth are a point clear of the bottom four following a 2-1 defeat at Hornchurch for whom Josh Walker hit the winner midway through the second half after Olly Dyson had cancelled out Henry Hearn's opener.

A Walker was also on target at Kidderminster, for whom Lewis Walker scored his ninth goal of the season to put the home side ahead against Halifax just after half time. Chris Sze, making his debut for the Shaymen after being signed on loan from Wigan, earned a draw for his team midway through the second half.
